NOTIFICATION BY THE SPICES AND OILSEEDS EXCHANGE LTD., SANGLI

The approval of the Secretary, Forward Markets Commission, under Sub-Section (1) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry Notification S.O. 1162, dated the 4th May, 1960, has been obtained on the 28th September, 1968 to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Spices & Oilseeds Exchange Ltd., Sangli, the same having been previously placed on the notice board of the Exchange under Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

I. For Bye-law 171, the following Bye-law shall be substituted, namely :—

“171. (a) If, in the opinion of the Board, an emergency has arisen or exists, or it is expedient in the general interest of the trade so to do, the Board may pass, by a simple majority at a meeting specially convened in this behalf a resolution prohibiting as from the date specified in the resolution;

(i) trading in hedge contracts in one or more deliveries in one or more commodities at a rate or rates above a maximum and/or below a minimum as may be specified, or

(ii) all trading in hedge contracts in one or more deliveries in one or more commodities for a specified period or until further notice as may be specified.

(b) The Board may from time to time pass by a simple majority a resolution extending or reducing the period during which the prohibition imposed under item (i) or item (ii) of clause (a) above shall be in force, or varying the maximum or minimum rate or rates specified under item (i) of clause (a) above.

(c) A resolution passed under clause (a) or (b) above shall take effect only after it is concurred in by the Forward Markets Commission.

(d) The powers specified in clauses (a) and (b) above may be exercised by the Forward Markets Commission, in any case, where in the opinion of Commission, it is expedient in the interest of the trade or the public interest so to do.”

II. For Bye-law 173, the following Bye-law shall be substituted, namely :—

“173. (a) If the Board considers that a state of emergency exists or is likely to arise, as may in the opinion of the Board make free trading in one or more deliveries of any or all hedge contracts extremely difficult, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Bye-laws, or in any hedge contracts made subject to these Bye-laws, the Board may pass, by a simple majority at a meeting specially convened in this behalf, a resolution :

(i) fixing the date as at the close of which the outstanding contracts as specified in the resolution, shall be deemed to be closed out and the rate or rates at which they shall be deemed to be so closed out, and,

(ii) fixing a special settlement day on which the differences arising out of such closing out shall be paid through the Clearing House,

(b) A resolution passed under clause (a) shall take effect only after it is concurred with by the Forward Markets Commission.

(c) The relevant clearing bye-laws shall apply to the payment of differences referred to in clause (a)(ii). ”

III. In Bye-law 251, in Clause (b), for the words, figures and brackets, "and (vii) Salem", the words, figures and brackets "(vii) Salem and (viii) Nanded" shall be substituted.
